

CLIENT PREVIEW

Bride Surprise & Hen Party Show in Malta

Story-based private entertainment for hen parties, girls' trips, villas, yachts and pre-club moments.

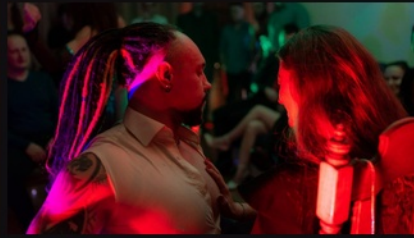

Ask your agent for availability

Entertainment only. No intimate services.

Why it works

This is not a random dance. It is a small story with tension, reveal, performance, photos and a happy ending - built to create a real reaction from the bride and her friends.

- Story-based surprise

A police/noise complaint entrance creates a playful tension before the reveal.

- Easy to add to a trip

Works for villas, apartments, hotels, yacht moments and pre-club warm-ups.

- Made for memories

The format creates photos, laughter, reactions and a story from Malta.

- Respectful entertainment

Consent, comfort, timing and venue rules stay clear from the start.

Three show formats

No prices are shown in this client preview. Availability, final structure and booking conditions are confirmed by your organiser.
